Children's Ministry

Sunday School Program:

Kingdom Quest

We have heard your concerns and found a program we think you will like. Here is what you can expect from the Kingdom Quest Program.

Jesus-centered. The content is very Jesus-centered and Bible based.

Learning with Fun. The lessons use active learning methods; it will probably feel like VBS at times.

Connecting with parents. Kids will bring home sheets called "God Talk at Home".

What is the difference between Children's Church and Kingdom Quest?

Children's Church (during the sermon) will creatively present the morning's Bible event.

Kingdom Quest helps engage the kids in story application and activities such as puppets, crafts, music, snack, and games to name a few.

For maximum impact, the children should attend both Children's Church and Kingdom Quest.

Coming This Summer ~ Big Wave Discovery

Youth & Adult Bible Studies

Jr. & Sr. High Youth

GOSPEL Journey. (Sunday morning) -

What happens when you bring together seven unlikely strangers, throw them right in the middle of the Rocky Mountains and take them on a journey through the gospel message as it unfolds throughout the story of the Bible? Raw, real and riveting discussions, an emotional breakdown or two and a few shocking surprises!

This unscripted reality series unleashes seven very different students on one unforgettable quest, to understand the gospel message straight from the pages of Scripture. Extreme challenges like white water rafting and rock climbing along with powerful illustrations from nature and life are used to lead these students on a journey toward Jesus in an edgy and relevant way.

To Save A Life. (Youth Group, Mondays beginning April 25th) -

A Bible study based on the movie To Save A Life.

To Save A Life is more than a movie/Bible study. It's the difference you can make when you use your influence and time for others - whether in your family, neighborhood, campus, community or world. Some people are just dying to be heard and accepted. Don't let 'em have to. Be the person who takes the time to show people they have value. Listen. Reach out. Engage. Imagine if we took the time to show other people we care. To Save A Life dares—no, inspires—you to.

You can change the world.

Adult Classes

Revelation. (Sunday morning) -

An in-depth study on the last book of the Bible - Revelation.

In the Dust of the Rabbi. (Thursday morning) -

An on-going video based study by Ray Vander Lann. It is a study in how Jesus and the disciples lived and looking at what we can learn from it and apply to our lives.

Facing Disaster Like a Man. (Men's Bible Breakfast, Saturday morning) -

Disasters! Life's catastrophes come in many shapes and sizes, and their unwelcome intrusion leaves us reeling. Grief, profound uncertainty and -- not infrequently -- more questions than can reasonably be answered, rise from its wake. In this devastation, the heart is drawn to look for answers human reason cannot provide.

The Lutheran Difference. (New Member Class, Wednesdays beginning May 4th) -

9 week class for those interested in joining and/or learning more about St. Paul, what we believe and why.

Ready to Meet Up with Jesus?

"Just like bottlenose dolphins help save each other, Jesus came to save us from eternal death. Eternal means forever - and that's a long, long time, dude."

"It's really amazing to trust someone else with your life, just like the clownfish trusts the anemo...amemo...amedillo...the squiggly thing! Stick close to Jesus and trust that He will protect you."

"Sea turtles are world travelers. When you go out in this big world and tell others about Jesus, I got something cool for you, Dudes. It's your Map: The Bible. It will help you know what to do."

"These harbor seal dudes will play with anybody! When you meet up with Jesus, He loves you just the way you are. He's totally stoked to be your friend!"

"Seagulls will actually swoop down and steal food! When I totally blow it, it feels good to be forgiven. If you admit that you blew it, then Jesus will forgive you! And that's super-gnarly-awesome!"

Kimberly in El Salvador

This month has been one of the most incredible, emotionally exhausting, amazing months of my life (I know I've become increasingly dramatic since being here in El Salvador, but there is actually no exaggeration in that statement). I am so blown away by the ways that I've seen God work. I want to shout for joy, cry, and at the same time fall to my knees in humble acknowledgement of how big our God is. Let me tell you why...

We took one week this month to dedicate to prayer. Each day of our prayer week, different students that are part of our (newly formed!) prayer team led a prayer time. It was so sweet to see new students stepping into leadership roles, really thinking about why prayer is important, and then joining together to pray for their campus. One of my highlights was Monday morning. One of the students Geovanny was going to lead us in a time of confession. Before our prayer time, Geovanny was really nervous, but when he started sharing, God gave him the words and the clarity to speak this message that was on his heart. Reading 1 John 1:9, which says, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness," he shared with us his heart for prayer and why it's so important for us to confess our sins and repent before God. As the beginning of 1 John 1 says, "God is light and in him there is no darkness," so for us to be with God, for us to live in the light and be a light to the students on Matias, we cannot live in darkness any longer. We cannot remain in our sin but rather, we confess our sin and then live in the confidence that God is faithful to forgive and cleanse us.

The week following our prayer week, a team of 42 people from Cal Poly SLO came to visit and work with us over their spring break. After a week of intense prayer and fasting, asking God to work in big ways on Matias, I saw so clearly how God answered the prayers that were on my heart. God used this week with the Spring Break team here to change lives, both those of our students here in El Salvador and those of the students from Cal Poly. God broke people down and opened up their hearts for the nations, leaving many people with the desire to return to El Salvador in the future. This week, through the students who came, we saw ten people come to Christ on two different college campuses. With their help, we were able to begin working on another college campus, Evangelica, and we're starting a bible study there next week! One of the students from Cal Poly who is fluent in Spanish, Hal, was able to share his testimony in the weekly meeting on Matias, and through his living example and his words, God was made real in the lives of a group of students we've been getting to know and praying for months. Additionally, the love that this group of people demonstrated reminded my friend Marcela, who has been struggling with serious depression, of God's love and has renewed her hope in him (a prayer that has constantly been on my heart the past few months).

We also spent time at a government-run orphanage where we met young girls (12-17) who were pregnant, children who had been abandoned or ran away because of gang involvement and abuse in their families, and others who were dealing with so many other hurts. And while our hearts broke for the state that so many Salvadorians live in and the brokenness there is in this country, we need to see these things to remember the work God has for us. El Salvador needs a Savior. The people here are broken and hurting, stuck in poverty, pain, and darkness, but God wants to shed his light on this place. My prayer in the work that we're doing here, in the way that we're building up godly men and women who will one day run this country, is that God's kingdom will come and his will be done in this place. And I have seen so clearly this week that this is what he is doing.

"Look at the nations and watch—and be utterly amazed. For I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe, even if you were told." Habakkuk 1:5

Prayer Requests:

- We are hosting a congress (Apr. 20-23) for students from El Salvador, Guatemala, and Nicaragua for the week of semana santa (holy week) to grow in their faith. Pray for the finances of each student who is trying to come and that all the preparation would go smoothly.

- Follow up with all the contacts from the Spring Break team

- The start of a Bible Study on Evangelica

MISSION REPORT

Dear Friends at St. Paul,

It has been awhile since my last update and a lot has happened! It is a new season here in Sweden with Spring arriving and I find that it is also a new season in my life. When I think about the past seven months of studying God's Word the verse that comes to mind is from Hebrews 4:12 which says, "For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul, spirit, of joints and of marrow." I have found the word of God to be just that, so alive and active in my spirit. I have learned many new things but most of all how important it is to let God's word transform you. We have a big sign in the classroom that says, "The Word of God is not for information but for our transformation." I have seen this happen in my life and how this school is equipping me to share the Good News with others.

I will be going home to the States after the School of Biblical Studies is over on June 27th. I am looking forward to a time of refreshment and seeing friends and family. Thank you for your prayers and financial support! God has been so faithful in providing for this school and my time in Sweden. I appreciate your prayers as I finish my last semester. I pray that God would bless each one of you as you celebrate His resurrection life this Easter.

By His Grace,
Sarah Buchkosky
